DEFENDANT NOT ON HAND FOR TRIAL OF SUIT OVER AUTO SALE

Morris Salvo, formerly of Worcester, defendant in a case that came to trial in the superior court at New London Thursday afternoon, was not in court and his present whereabouts are not known. When the plaintiff's attorney was all in before Judge Allen J. Brown, the case had to be continued to a date to be settled later for the testimony of the defendant.

The Mystic Auto Station at Mystic is suing Salvo, formerly of Worcester, for payment for a Chandler automobile.

DECISCO CLUB PROGRAMME

AT TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM

The members of the Decisco club very pleasantly entertained the patients at the tuberculosis sanatorium on Wednesday evening with a musical programme, which was as follows:

Hardest, Hugh Kinder.

Miss Hazel Hatfield, the club accompanist, was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Gerard was held at her late home on Norwich avenue with a large attendance of relatives and friends. There were many hundreds of floral tributes. At the services in Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock, Rev. U. O. Bellerose was celebrant of a solemn high mass with Rev. Fr. Desrosiers of St. Joseph's church, Orono, as deacon and Rev. Fr. Chagnon as sub-deacon. The boners were three sons and three sons-in-law and burial took place in Sacred Heart cemetery. George G. Grant was the funeral director.

The annual meeting of the Taftville Chapter, A. R. C., will be held in the town hall, Taftville, on Wednesday, Oct. 26th, at 8 p. m.—adv.

A pocket billiard match of no passing interest was played on Thursday evening for the championship of the Knights of Columbus. This match was between Herman Fontaine and James Troland, in which the former far outclassed the latter, winning all three of the fifty-point games. The scores were 50 to 33; 50 to 34 and 50 to 10. Fontaine's high run was 20 and Troland's high run was 14.

The plaintiff claims that the defendant bought a Chandler automobile for which he gave a check for $800 on which he afterward stopped payment and returned the machine on the ground that the machine was represented as a 1918 model when it was a 1917 model.

In court in the morning the evidence was concluded and Judge Brown took the papers in the suit of Annie J. Mathewson against Jeanette Caswell, both of Mystic, for $5,000 damages for assault and battery.

PLANS SHAPING BIG FOR

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION

Plans for the Armistice day parade and celebration are rapidly shaping up and with fair weather the celebration will without doubt be one of the most successful of its kind ever held in the city. The general committee in charge of the celebration held an important session at the American Legion rooms in the Stead block Thursday evening at which time the various sub-committees made encouraging reports. Webster D. Cogg, general chairman, presided at the meeting and with one or two exceptions all members of the committee were present.

Chairman Cogg stated that the arrangements for the celebration are going along very smoothly. The indications are that there will be a large turnout of local organizations which are cooperating with the war veterans in their effort to carry out a fitting observance of the end of the World war three years ago. The approach of Armistice day, which occurs Friday, November 11th, takes the world war service men back to the blood soaked battlefields in France. Everywhere throughout the country celebrations such as Norwich is to have are being planned in observance of the end of the greatest conflict of arms the world has ever experienced. A part of the day's programme will be reserved for a silent tribute to the memory of the comrades who were left behind. This tribute will probably take place at the armory just before the chowder is served.

As has already been announced the day's programme includes a large parade in which it is expected there will be well over a thousand in line. The parade will be headed by Major Charles A. Hagberg as marshal. In line will be four or five batteries and the military band of the 192nd Artillery, Col. M. B. Payne, New London, commanding a detachment of marines or sailors from the submarine base, members of Fletcher Post, No. 4, American Legion, Members of Richard Hourigan Post Veterans of Foreign Wars, other ex-service men not members of either post, Seagwick Post, No. 1, G. A. R., local Spanish War Veterans, a number of prominent local organizations, besides the city and town officials.

At the meeting Thursday evening the committee decided to invite the children of the public and parochial schools to participate in the parade. One section of the parade will be reserved for them. The sub-committee in charge of the chowder to be served at the armory after the parade reported progress. The committee announced that the chowder is to be served only to the men of the 192nd artillery, and to all ex-service men who parade, whether they are members of the American Legion or Veterans of Foreign Wars or not. The city and town officials and a number of other guests, will of course, be present. The chowder is to be provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion.

The entertainment committee reported progress. It was decided that this year arrangements will be made for the checking of gentlemen's and ladies' wraps during the public dance at the armory. The coat rooms will be in charge of competent persons under the direction of Stewart Wilson and George Malcolm, both ex-service men and members of the local National Guard. The dance, as has already been announced, is free to the public. Arrangements are now being made for the booking of a popular Norwich orchestra of eight or ten pieces. Dancing will be from 9 to midnight or there will probably be a band concert in the armory.

Charles Olson who has charge of the transportation of the civil war veterans and other guests in the parade, reported that he has secured the use of eight or ten machines for the parade and is making arrangements to secure the use of other machines. Wherever possible the drivers will be ex-service men in uniform.

The manufacturers' committee reported progress in their efforts to have the manufacturing plants close down at noon for the remainder of the day. The committee reported that the sentiment among the Norwich manufacturers is favorable to closing for the half holiday. The committee through their chairman reported that they will have a definite report on the matter next week at which time they hope to have a list of the plants which will close.

At the business session plans were made for the annual meeting of the local branch. The annual meeting is to be held in the Community House on November 3rd. It is to be an open meeting for the members and general public.

During the social hour tea was served by Mrs. Frank L. Woodard. The officers of the local branch are as follows: President, Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins; vice president, Mrs. Frank L. NORWICH TOWN

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Congregational church, will hold the second meeting for this season this (Friday) afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, to formulate plans for the winter's work. It has been suggested that all members who have clothing to make over or new pieces of material that in any way could be utilized for children's garments with them to this meeting as at the present time the society has nothing to work on.

General Manager H. Clay Preston of the Connecticut Humane society, has forwarded to Dr. Charles H. Lamb, local agent, information concerning a meeting of the executive committee, held recently at the headquarters of the society at Hartford. The report outlining activities dealt particularly upon the usefulness of the shelter for animals maintained at headquarters; where anyone who was interested would have a pleasant experience in making a tour of inspection. During September twenty-one ani-imals were provided with care of some sort or another and three lost dogs were restored to their owners. At the time the report was given two horses were enjoying the bounty of the society after long years of service, three dogs in need of their masters keenly looked over the visitors and six cats, three of which had long coats, were anxiously waiting for a good home. Eighty-two complaints of cruelty to animals are investigated and the agents attached to headquarters each turned in an interesting report of aid rendered to suffering animals covering a wide range of humane activities. Unwanted small animals numbering 122 were disposed of and seven horses past any useful purpose were destroyed. Representing only the Hartford district, the family work for the month shows a substantial gain, the report states thirty-nine new families were referred for attention with these results growing out of the investigations, one children committed to orphanages, one was placed with relatives and six others were taken to hospitals or the city on cruelty charges.

Encouraging reports were presented from the Stamford-Greenwich branch and the district office in Bridgeport. The only appointing resident agent, Clarence M. Agard, assumed charge of the Bridgeport division September 1.

Two additional local agents were authorized, John T. Dolan, Jewett City, and S. P. Steinberg, Greenwich, to aid the society in its work in their respective localities.

SAYS EVERY RAILROAD MAN SHOULD READ THIS

Peterson's Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sirs—I was afflicted with what the doctors said were varicose ulcers, and up until about five weeks ago I have been treating them for about a year and five months. With all the treatments that were prescribed to me by several doctors I received little benefit and they kept spreading and gave me much distress and caused me to quit my work. I was induced by a brother brakeman to try Peterson's Ointment, and after I had used two boxes I saw the wonderful results. You can tell suffering ones troubled with ugly, painful and horrid ulcers that your ointment is a cure for them when everything else fails, as I have tried about everything. Thanking you many times over, I am, your happy friend, Chas. J. Hieser, Battle Creek, Mich. 42 Glenwood Ave., Jan. 20, 1916.

"I know and dozens of people write me," says Peterson of Buffalo, "that Peterson's Ointment also cures eczema, old sores, skin rheum, bites and all skin diseases, and all druggists sell a big box for 35 cents." Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.
